LONDON—Niru Ratnam will be the new director of Aicon's Heddon Street London space, the gallery has announced. Ratnam is currently the co-director of STORE gallery in London, which he co-founded in 2003. He specializes in non-Western art and contemporary issues around globalization, and he has published four books in the "Art of the Twentieth Century" series, published by Yale University Press. He begins work at Aicon on November 11.
